

APPS Parents should know about

Snapchat has over 280 million users. It is a digital platform where people can send and share pictures and communicate with friends and family.

TikTok has over 689 million users. It is a social media app where people can upload short videos or either whole world see, or they can send it to friends.

Facebook has over 44.84 million users. It is a social media platform which allows you to share things and communicate with friends and family.

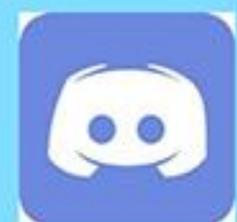

Twitter has over 353 million users. It is a place to share what you are doing and to see what other people are doing in real time.

Instagram has over 1 billion users. It is a platform where you can upload, like and comment on people pictures/images.

WhatsApp has over 2.5 billion users. It is a place where you can message friends and family all over the world.

Discord has over 140 million monthly active users. It is a communication platform made for gamers.

Xbox live has over 100 million monthly active users. This is an app where you can talk to people through your Xbox and invite your friends into games.

Twitch has over 140 million monthly users. This is a platform where games can live stream their games and people can comment.

Omegle has over 1.1 million users. It is a video chat room where people can connect with others all around the globe.

Yubo has over 40 million users. It is a platform which allows you to become friends with strangers online. (Formerly yellow app).

Spotifyfriend is a young teens version of Tinder. It has over 1 million users.